Top Area Law Firm Announces New Partner Associate Cara Whalen has Become a Partner in the Firm

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 12, 2019

Managing partner Joshua E. Mackey is pleased to announce on behalf of the firm that associate Cara A. Whalen has become a partner in the firm. “We are delighted and thankful to have Cara as our partner. Our law firm has reached a new level of sophistication with Cara’s participation. We look forward to having her perspective at the partner’s table.”

Ms. Whalen joined the firm in 2016 and is based in the firm’s Millbrook location. Her practice is focused in the areas of residential and commercial real estate including all phases of leasing, purchasing, selling and financing with individuals and business owners.

Ms. Whalen is also experienced in estate planning, landlord/tenant matters, and liquor licensing law. Click here to learn more about Cara A. Whalen.
